Memories Made in Maine's Wild Blueberry Marmalade began in 2002 in the heart of coastal Maine. It all started with an idea and a recipe. After making the marmalade for friends and relatives for a couple of years...a neighbor said, "You should market this stuff"...So, lo and behold, here it is – a part of coastal Maine one can take home, gift and enjoy!

Savor the sweet and tangy flavor, straight from the blueberry fields of Maine. This local gourmet product is homemade and home grown. It is certain to become a staple favorite of yours and those who receive it.

Made from natural ingredients, Maine's most popular and sumptuous fruit, Wild Maine Blueberries combined with a hint of citrus, enhances any one of your favorite breakfast breads.
